

Please reject the proposed changes to broadcast ownership rules. No citizen is well-served by having more media channels controlled by fewer interests. A strongly competitive media marketplace is imperative for a healthy democracy: the fewer sources available, the more vulnerable we become to special agendas, misinformation, and declines in stringent and objective reporting. Allowing broadcast ownership to be consolidated is a move away from public service. Please reject the proposed changes.